THE TROUBLE IN BEHRING SEA.

England and the Maritime Nations Interested—Riot in New York State—Dr.
McDow's Trial—From Hayti.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.]

PHILADELPHIA, June 23.—Postmaster General Wanamaker's appetite for rule grows by what it feeds on. Not satisfied with the honor of being known as the leading light and most prominent Sunday school teacher in the Bethany Presbyterian church of Philadelphia, he desired to assume supreme control over the church and its pastor, Rev. Dr. Pierson. To this Dr. Pierson objected, and for some time there have been serious bickering between the postmaster-general and the pastor. The latter at length found that the pious politician had made matters so uncomfortable for him that he resigned. Nearly every member of the church desires the continuance of Dr. Pierson in the pastorate, but Wanamaker has exercised his occult powers in such a manner that few of them are willing to raise their voices in protest against "freezing out" their pastor.

Dr. Pierson is regarded as a very estimable gentleman and a zealous clergyman, but he found himself reduced to the position of subsiding to Wanamaker. His church was known as "Wanamaker's church," his Sunday school as "Wanamaker's Sunday school," and it is said that Wanamaker undertook to dictate to Dr. Pierson the subjects and treatment of his sermons. On more than one occasion the pastor's cheeks became red with indignation at the dictatorial manner in which his parishioner spoke to him. This at last became unbearable, and when the clergyman protested against being treated in such a fashion, Wanamaker's ire was aroused, and the consequence is that Dr. Pierson is to leave the church.

One of the things that evoked Wanamaker's wrath was the fact, which came to his ears, that Dr. Pierson had said: "John Wanamaker can talk longer and say less than any man I know of." It is said that Wanamaker, for the purpose of exercising supreme control over the church, will have Rev. Thomas C. Horton appointed pastor. He was justly called Dr. Pierson, and seems to be sufficiently subservient to please Wanamaker. With him in the pastorate, Wanamaker will be the actual pastor.

A group of reporters, who had been assigned to report on the services at Bethany church, noticed that Wanamaker at the conclusion in order to have a certain point explained. In the midst of their conversation an old lady attached to the church came up, and when she learned that the young men were reporters, she exclaimed in a loud voice: "You can't believe a word you find in the newspapers." "Oh, yes," they said, "we can." "What can you believe?" asked the old lady indignantly. "My advertisements," exclaimed the postmaster-general with a look of triumph.

The Maritime Nations and Behring Sea.
OTTAWA, June 24.—It is stated in official circles that no action will be taken at present by either the Dominion or British governments in regard to protecting British sealing vessels in Behring sea. The question as to the right of the United States to exclusive jurisdiction will for the present be held in abeyance, as no good authority is known that the British government is seeking the co-operation of the several maritime powers of the world with a view to joining in the dispute of the United States claim to the reference of the question to arbitration.

The British government has requested the Dominion government to take no action until a settlement has been arrived at in this case. It is stated that several maritime powers which have been invited to take part in the settlement support the contention of the British government, that Behring sea is not a closed sea, and that it is open to all nations. The British government will also be submitted to arbitration when the question of jurisdiction is taken up.

Hayti News.
NEW YORK, June 24.—Captain Shaw, of the steamer Delta, which arrived last night from Port de Paix, states that General Hippolyte had arrived from Cape Hayti, and was about to rejoin the army before Port au Prince. Private letters received at Cape Hayti, from Port au Prince, stated that the city was in a very excited condition. Legation refused to leave or capitulate. There are great fears of insurrection.

Advices from Panama to June 15, say that Patrick Egan, United States minister to Chile, had arrived on the isthmus and had been favorably received. He leaves tomorrow for the south.

England's Attitude Toward Behring Sea.
[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.]

Excitement in Petroleum.
NEW YORK, June 24.—The greatest excitement prevailed on the Consolidated exchange to-day in consequence of a jump in the price of oil. The cause was the fact that the Standard people had brought about a settlement of their agreement with the Producers' Protective association, which was not expected to transpire until July 1. By this agreement, the Standard Oil company had on call 3,500,000 barrels held by the association at 10 cents, with charges, since November 1, 1887.

The Nipise Comm. Home.
WASHINGTON, June 23.—Word has been received at the navy department that the Nipise, the sole survivor of the American fleet at Samoa after the hurricane, has started for San Francisco under convoy of the Albatross. She comes direct from Samoa and will stop at Honolulu, but will not touch at Honolulu. Temporary repairs were made before the start which have, it is believed, rendered the vessel seaworthy enough to undertake the voyage which, under favorable circumstances, should be made in thirty or forty days.

From Cape May to Washington.
CAPE MAY, June 24.—The President left for Washington this afternoon.

Called by a Painted Woman.
[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.]

NEW YORK, June 23.—Robert E. Carden shot John E. Ryan June 3, after a quarrel about a young painted-faced woman. Ryan was believed to be dying and Carden was accordingly arrested and held to await results. Then Ryan got well and Thursday his assailant was brought into court and put under $5,000 bail. Yesterday among the laughs and sportings men who went to court was George Law, the millionaire. He had $10,000 with him and was prepared to furnish twice that amount in cash if requested for Carden's bail. He left with the gang, but was unable to go bail, as he and the gang looked so ragged in spirits and generally that the court officials advised them to get out. They did, and didn't show up afterwards.

George Law is the president of the Eight and Ninth avenue surface car line and worth $4,000,000, and has long been noted for his eccentricities and the peculiar character of his associations when in his cups. He was frequently in the city in the roughest class of sporting men, gamblers and sloggers, whom he treats with royal liberality, and the finest of wines, viands and cigars are furnished them at his expense. He is a great favorite with the sporting men, and is a favorite with them. Upon one occasion, a few months ago at Saratoga, he gave away over $15,000 worth of diamonds and watches.

A MISALLIANCE.
Pretty and Pious Amelia Taschereau Runs Away with an Englishman.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.]
OTTAWA, Ont., June 23.—Frank Beard came to Canada from England two years ago bringing letters of introduction from prominent people there and had no difficulty in making his way into society here. His father is Dr. Charles Beard, of Brighton, England. Frank, who is only twenty-two, obtained a responsible position in the Canadian Atlantic Railway company. He was justly called Dr. Pierson, and seems to be sufficiently subservient to please Wanamaker. With him in the pastorate, Wanamaker will be the actual pastor.

THE ARMY OF THE CUMBERLAND.

Preparations for Its Meeting at Chattanooga—
Fires on the Northern Pacific—General
H. M. Bane Appointed to Office.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Solicitor Hepburn has given an opinion to the secretary of the treasury that there is nothing in the law to prohibit the landing of Chinese laborers, who desire merely to pass through the territory of the United States in transit. The question arose on the application for landing at San Francisco of a number of Chinese destined to Cuba, a bond being offered for their departure from United States territory. The application was granted.

THUNDERBOLT, Col., June 24.—This morning about 10 o'clock while C. F. Painter, cashier of the San Miguel Valley bank, was making collections, three men entered the bank and demanded the funds of the bookkeeper at the points of revolvers. After securing the bank funds they joined a fourth robber who was holding their horse just outside the bank. They left town on the run, firing shots in the air to frighten the citizens. It is not yet known just what amount they secured, probably only a few thousands. They are heading for the Arizona line, with the sheriff's party in pursuit, and unless they have a change of horses, it is more than probable that they will be captured before twenty-four hours.

Another Suspect Under Surveillance.

CHICAGO, June 24.—An afternoon paper says the police here have a San Francisco suspect under surveillance in that city on suspicion of connection with the Cronin murder, and declares that it was on his photograph identified by several persons here as resembling Simonds, the man who carried the Cronin cottage furniture. This photograph was furnished by Lake Dillon. Of it he says: "The original is the last man in the world I would suspect of such a crime. When the police find Cooney and kill him, I will be satisfied. It will be time enough to give up his name and there will be no difficulty in getting this man in question. He is a Californian, has a lucrative business and an excellent reputation."

Cooney Thought to be Arrested.

CHICAGO, June 23.—The capture of Cooney, the Cronin suspect, is reported to-night at Frankfort, Indiana. Chief of Police Hubbard has received telegrams saying that the prisoner at Frankfort for burglary answers to Cooney's description. Lieutenant Schuttler made preparation at once to take the train for Frankfort. A special dispatch says, however, that a correspondent has seen the man arrested, and that the officers are mistaken, that the fellow is not Cooney at all.

It Isn't Cooney, but Another Coon.

CHICAGO, June 24.—The chief of police has received a dispatch from Frankfort, Indiana, stating that the suspect arrested there is not Cooney.

After it was over, this body of men enclosed in a mass and sang a song composed for the occasion, in which they were assisted by a choir. Director Kimball on the Gold Export.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Director of the Mint Kimball was questioned to-day with regard to the recent heavy exportations of gold from New York, and he said they were caused by the demand from France, a premium being offered by the Bank of France. About the 1st of June the directors of the Bank of England raised by half a penny the price at which it would sell French gold coins, and recourse has been had to the United States, where, under the law of May 28, 1883, the gold can be exchanged at the coinage mints and assay office at New York in sums of $5,000 of face without any loss on account of wear in the coin, which is suffered where coin in place of bars is dealt with.

The director thinks this law should be repealed or amended so as to allow a bar charge, and says that the present stock of bars at the assay office in New York is the most available supply in the world, for the world's benefit, rather than the United States as an ordinary exchange operation. Rates of exchange have been against the exportation of gold to France from London and New York.

Wreckage from an Ocean Steamer.

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., June 24.—For several days there have been evidences of some ocean disaster washing ashore on the island of Wreckage. To-day, bundles of women's clothes were picked up on the beach at Edgerton, and a life preserver came from the wreck. The wreckage is considerable. Considerable of the wreckage painted green and lead color, is coming ashore. Among that found at Milb's point to-day were silk moultings in considerable numbers, a pair of women's shoes, a pair of three glass circular top lights, one window sash, evidently belonging to some steamer and also the steamer "Victoria" had landed. The goods of the steamer "Hayden" regularly were washed ashore at Nantucket to-day. Everything points to a collision between the Hayden, Republic and Victoria, though life preserver belonging to the Victoria, which is the mystery enveloping this supposed disaster.

REUDOLPH ARONSON'S PLANS.

He is Perfecting Plans for a Casino in Paris—
His New Opera.

He is staying at Neuchâtel, he said to your correspondent, "I am not quiet, which I need much and I am in Paris for the purpose of erecting a building which will be a New York Casino in Paris. It will be conducted entirely on the American plan, and will be a garden similar to the Casino in New York. During the winter we have arranged for a glass covering which will be used to make a winter garden."

What opera is secured for the coming New York season?

"Chassagnon is at work on 'La Mexicana.' Two acts are already completed so far, and the music is more characteristic and catchy than 'Nelly.' The scene is laid in Mexico and Spain. Pauline Hall will create the role 'La Mexicana' at the New York Casino on September 17. Marie Hatten will create the role of 'Nelly.' The opera will be produced by the Casino, and Charles Campbell will return to his position as leading tenor."

With that end in view, the boys were conducting their experiments yesterday when a terrible explosion occurred, killing both boys. The explosion was so violent that the boys were hurled to the ground and were seriously injured.

The Pine Ridge Agency Combine.

PIKE RIDGE AGENCY, Dak., June 23.—It is now definitely known that prior to the arrival of the commissioners a combination was formed at this agency, with Red Cloud at the head, pledged to oppose the bill and not even consider it. This explains the reluctance of many of the Indians to talk about the bill. The object of the disintegration of this combine has been quietly carried out by the commissioners for several days, and it now seems as if some progress was being made. The Indians are signing slowly, and the prospects are more favorable.

STILL THEY COME.

Another Sensation About Cronin
And the Clan.

CHICAGO'S POSTMASTER WANTED

Before the Grand Jury—The Turners' Festival
In Cincinnati—A Land Commissioner at Guthrie, Oklahoma, Removed.

CHICAGO, June 24.—To-night's sensation in the Cronin case is the report that the authorities have information showing that a committee of the Clan-na-Gael after a formal trial found Cronin guilty of being a British spy. The charges was that Cronin, under the guise of endeavoring to expose the alleged malfeasance of Alexander Sullivan and Michael Borland and Dennis Peely, was in reality attempting to bring about a public investigation of the workings and acts of the order for the information of the British government and the London Times commission.

It was shown that the exposure of the workings of the order would be necessary to refute Cronin's charges and would furnish the London Times all the information which it had desired of obtaining by the appointment of a government sub-commission in America. Cronin's maneuver, it was also pointed out that whatever his motives were, could hardly help but insure the extradition of every man who had gone across the water on active service. Chief Hubbard and State Attorney Longmeyer neither explicitly nor implicitly disavowed the charges, but two trials of Cronin were held. The first was in January, but when it came to the evidence one man had weakened. The charges were disavowed, but subsequently organized in a secret place, the man's place who weakened being filled by another man. The man who retired from the first meeting became aware of the re-organization of the Cronin case, so he claimed, has been the source from which the information has come to the authorities.

The trial committee consisted of several persons, each of whom, it is said, is now under surveillance. They did not sentence any one to death or have any knowledge of much less have any thing to do with Cronin going from Chicago to New Orleans in the Cronin cottage. All that, it is claimed, was the outgrowth of a verdict which was simply that the proof showed Cronin to be a spy.

The Postmaster Summoned.

CHICAGO, June 24.—State Attorney Longmeyer went before Judge Shipnuy this evening and obtained an order whereby Postmaster Sexton, of Chicago, is directed by the court to produce for the grand jury all the applications for postoffice money order-books or applications, and any other information that may be required in connection with the investigation of the parties who killed Dr. Cronin.

The Turners' Festival.

CINCINNATI, June 24.—The Turners' festival to-day in the Campus was devoted to individual athletic exercises, which were held simultaneously in twelve places, on ample grounds. While this was going on all the forenoon in a Campus, the shooting section of the Turners was engaged in rifle contests on Price's hill. In the afternoon the exercises in the Campus were jumping from a stand with running and pole vault. The Turners of advanced age also showed late in the day what they could do. To-morrow there will be swimming in the river, a picnic at Inwood park and a parade.

Johnstown Devastated by Fire.

JOHNSTOWN, June 24.—A sweeping fire broke out in the first ward at 12:30 this afternoon. The flames spread rapidly and in half an hour twenty houses were burning. All the houses in the place were called out, the most intense excitement prevailed. Nearly all the houses burning were destroyed, as there was more or less wind. The fire spreading rapidly towards Kernville, and has got beyond the control of the fire department, and now covers five acres.

The fire in the first ward consumed all but three of the buildings in the district bounded by Market and Walnut streets, and by Main street and the river and twenty-five houses are totally destroyed. Many buildings that were destroyed have been washed away from their foundations. Though many of them contained household goods which were saved from the flood, but few of these goods were saved. The fire is supposed to have been caused by sparks flying from the debris burning near by.

A remarkable showing was made in the work of cleaning up the wreckage to-day, one heavy blast following another in the debris above the railroad bridge and the place will probably be cleared up by Thursday. This afternoon about three o'clock a charge of dynamite exploded near the second arch from the east end of the bridge, and from the great body of wreckage and remnants afterwards gathered together, showed at least six bodies discovered. Much driftwood was blown up and has lodged in various places extending far below as Delidale. These obstructions have rendered useless a great part of the work at the bridge.

Coughlin, Sullivan and Woodruff Arraigned.

Coughlin asked for a continuance; the others said they were willing to be tried at once. At the request of the state's attorney, the trial was put over till next term. The state's attorney says he has enough evidence to hang them.

WAR TO THE BELT.

Kilrain and Sullivan in Tip-Top Condition. All Parties are Confident.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.]
NEW YORK, June 24.—Two weeks from to-day John L. Sullivan and Jake Kilrain are to meet for their long promised battle. The Kilrain party having won the toss for choice for grounds, they had to assume the initiative, so Frank Stevenson, Mike Donovan and William E. Harding started for New Orleans this morning. They were met at Baltimore by Kilrain and Mitchell. Dispatches received by Stevenson's friends in this city this evening state that they found Jake in fine condition and quite confident as to the result, while Mitchell expressed himself as entirely satisfied with his man. After a long chat, Stevenson, Harding and Donovan left Baltimore late this evening for Crescent city, where Kilrain and Mitchell will join them in time for Donovan's exhibition Saturday.

The Sullivan party are also getting ready for their long fight. Jimmy Wakenly said to-day that he expected to hear from Stevenson about Thursday, naming the place for the fight, which must run one hundred miles of New Orleans.

Wakenly will start Sunday next accompanied by Charles Johnston, and they will be met at Rochester by Sullivan and his second, who are as yet unnamed. A special has been engaged by the Sullivan party to be attached to the regular express train. It is decided that under no circumstances shall any one gain access to Sullivan's car.

Judging from what was said this afternoon, the men who are behind Sullivan are perfectly satisfied that their man is in tip-top condition, and one bet of $1,000 to $500 was offered by a well-known sport that Sullivan would win in less than thirty rounds.

After fifty or sixty men will leave this city to witness the fight. From Boston there will go nearly thirty; white Albany, Rochester, Buffalo, Chicago, Pittsburg, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Louisville will also be there, and one bet of $1,000 to $500 was offered by a well-known sport that Sullivan would win in less than thirty rounds.
